I am of the view that the writ petition as such, may not be maintainable in view of the decision of the Supreme Court reported in Federal Bank Ltd Vs. Sagar Thomas [2003 (3) KLT 876]. Nevertheless, since the parties have arrived at a consensus, the learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the entire amount due to the 3rd respondent shall be paid, provided some breathing time is granted. Learned Standing Counsel for the 3rd respondent graciously accepted the said offer. In the circumstances, this writ petition is being disposed of in the following terms:

i) The petitioner shall file a representation before the 3rd respondent, within two weeks from today indicating the time for repayment of the entire balance amount due to the 3rd respondent.

ii) On receipt of the said representation, the 3rd respondent shall intimate the petitioner about the schedule for repayment and the petitioner shall scrupulously adhere to the same.
